

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

This conference has been possible only with the generous support of the Class of 1940 Cultural Endowment. The purchase of the Steinway piano used on these concerts was made possible with funds contributed in memory of Ethel T. Cameron by her family and friends and by support from The James T. and Laura C. Rhind Fund. The Department of Music deeply appreciates the generosity of the friends and alumni of the College who have contributed these funds and established these endowments.

I would also like to thank all of the talented and accomplished performers from central New York, especially including those who teach here at Hamilton, who make such a series of events here conceivable. And thank you, also to those performers who are visiting us this weekend and who have brought their gifts here to us.

Huge thanks go to Neva Pilgrim, the music director of the Syracuse Society for New Music. Her assistance has been completely indispensable, and her support for new music in this area continues to be the stuff of legends.

A big thank you also goes to my colleagues in the Department of Music, especially to Rob Kolb, Heather Buchman, and Doc Woods for their participation in the programming decisions for this conference and for their performances on the concerts. I also want to express deep gratitude to Michelle Reiser-Memmer, the Performing Arts Administrator here, and to Kim Carroll, the Academic Office Assistant for the department, for all of their help with the preparation and execution of this series of events. And thank you also to campus AV Services for their terrific support.

I also want to thank the Dean of the Faculty Joe Uργο and our college's president, Joan Stewart, for their continuing support of our department and its activities.

And last but not least, thank you to the Society of Composers and its members for so many good times for so many years!

Sam
