

Kirkland Project

Mission Statement

THE KIRKLAND PROJECT for the Study of Gender, Society and Culture is an on-campus organization committed to social justice, focusing on issues of race, class, gender, sexuality, disability, as well as other facets of human diversity. The Kirkland Project seeks to provide the integrated, complex, rigorous intellectual analysis and engagement that is characteristic of a liberal arts education and necessary for social justice movements by sponsoring curricular initiatives, student research, faculty development, and a public lecture series.

Contact Us!

Do you have a suggestion or idea for us to consider? Would you like to be on our mailing list? We would like to hear from you. Telephone us at 315-859-4288. Send e-mail to kirkproj@hamilton.edu. Visit our web site and click on "Contact Us," to fill out an electronic reply form.

The work we do is enhanced when donors contribute to Hamilton College and note the contribution is in support of the Kirkland Project. Thank you for your consideration.