God bless all people everywhere where all they need to eat.

God bless all people here and there with water clear and sweet. May everyone be warm and dry, and have the help they need. May we bring forth the love of God on Earth, comfort and joy. May this season of Christmas be a time that we think of all the things we can share. The baby in Beth-le-hem shows us the way. Our hope for the future, our courage today. So tiny, so precious, the baby awakes, awakes all the people to
